- Almaty
- Online seller, sole proprietor
- 2 employees, 3–5M KZT / month

Key Traits

Digital literacy	●●●●○
Legal knowledge	●○○○○
Price sensitivity	●●●●○
Urgency	●●●●●

Bio

Sells children’s clothing on Kaspi and Wildberries. Buys from Guangzhou via 1688 and a buyer friend, 1–2 shipments a month. Uses a contract template from a sellers’ WhatsApp chat. Does not speak Chinese.

Favorite Apps & Brands

Kaspi Business	Wildberries
1688	Telegram
Instagram	eGov mobile

Wants & Needs

- Make a contract fast and without mistakes, so the bank accepts the payment.
- Stop paying a lawyer for every shipment and avoid fines.

Frustrations

Doesn’t know whether she needs a contract registration number (UCN) or what the deadlines are. Fears her template is “wrong”. The supplier asks for a contract in Chinese. No time to study the law.

Kelisim scenario

Finds Kelisim through friends and colleagues, signs up on the Free plan and makes her first RU/CN contract. Gets a yellow status: UCN required. Gets it at the bank, then upgrades to the Basic plan.

Hypothesis based on desk research. To be validated with interviews of importers and brokers.

Yerzhan

Secondary persona

- 42
- Astana
- Wholesale company director
- 15 employees, no lawyer

Key Traits

Digital literacy	●●●○○
Legal knowledge	●●●○○
Price sensitivity	●●○○○
Importance of control	●●●●●

Bio

Imports construction materials and household chemicals from Turkey and China. Large contracts, often above the registration threshold. Pays via Halyk and Freedom. Was fined once for late repatriation.

Favorite Apps & Brands

- Halyk
- Freedom
- Excel
- Email
- Telegram

Wants & Needs

- Keep control of deadlines across all contracts.
- Check new suppliers before paying and cut external lawyer costs.

Frustrations

Repatriation deadlines live in the accountant’s Excel and get forgotten. A new supplier may turn out to be on a sanctions list. Documents are scattered across email.

Kelisim scenario

Takes the Pro plan right away and adds 5 active contracts. Connects the Telegram bot for himself and his accountant. Checks every new counterparty before paying.

Hypothesis based on desk research. To be validated with interviews of importers and brokers.

Dinara

B2B persona

- 36
- Karaganda
- Outsourced accountant
- 3 staff, 20 clients, 8 importers

Key Traits

Digital literacy	●●●●●
Legal knowledge	●●●●○
Price sensitivity	●●●○○
Workload	●●●●●

Bio

Runs an accounting firm with about 20 clients, 8 of them importers. Prepares bank documents for clients, tracks their deadlines and answers banks’ currency control requests. At the computer all day. Needs tables, filters and export.

Favorite Apps & Brands

- 1C
- Excel
- Taxpayer account

Wants & Needs

- See the deadlines of all clients in one window.
- Produce standard documents fast and sell clients an extra service.

Frustrations

Clients send data late and with errors. Switching between companies wastes time. She is responsible for her clients’ missed deadlines.

Kelisim scenario

B2B plan with a company switcher in the header and one shared calendar of deadlines for all clients. Sends each client a link to the deal form.

Hypothesis based on desk research. To be validated with interviews of importers and brokers.
